

COURT OF APPEAL

McMURDO P
McPHERSON JA
HOLMES J

CA No 181 of 2004
CA No 193 of 2004

THE QUEEN

v.

SHANE MICHAEL HALL and
KARINA JUNE HALL a.k.a. KARINA JUNE JENSEN

BRISBANE

..DATE 23/08/2004

JUDGMENT

THE PRESIDENT: The respondent concedes that the judicial directions to the jury as to the identification evidence in the case of Jensen were inadequate and that it is not an appropriate case in her appeal to exercise the proviso in s 668E(1A) Criminal Code.

In those circumstances the Court orders in Jensen's appeal that the appeal be allowed and her convictions quashed.

The Court will reserve its decision as to whether a new trial should be ordered.

Jensen should be granted bail on the same terms as her earlier grant of bail.

The Court will deliver its reasons for these orders later.

The Court will reserve its decision in respect of Hall's appeal.
