

COURT OF APPEAL

McMURDO P

CA No 260 of 2004

THE QUEEN

v.

GARRY ROBIN FORD

Appellant

BRISBANE

..DATE 09/09/2005

ORDER

THE PRESIDENT: All right. Well, look, I am prepared to delist the matter from the 27th of September and relist it for hearing on the 21st of November this year. It is extremely unlikely the matter will be delisted again or that any further adjournment will be granted because there has to be some finality in this matter.

APPELLANT: Oh, I agree.

THE PRESIDENT: You have been given every opportunity now to get your material together. All affidavit material that you are intending to rely on at the hearing of the appeal is to be filed by Friday the 21st of October.

APPELLANT: Okay. Now is it possible for you to, as I said before, to give them a push along at this?

THE PRESIDENT: Well, I will recommend that you be given adequate access to computers so that you can adequately prepare your appeal.

APPELLANT: Thank you, your Honour.

THE PRESIDENT: Those are the orders made today and I would request a transcript of today's hearing to be placed on the file and a transcript of the orders and recommendations made to be given to Mr Ford.
