ORDER

WARNING: The publication of information or details likely to lead to the identification of persons in some proceedings is a criminal offence. This is so particularly in relation to the identification of children who are involved in criminal proceedings or proceedings for their protection under the Child Protection Act 1999, and complainants in criminal sexual offences, but is not limited to those categories. You may wish to seek legal advice before giving others access to the details of any person named in these proceedings.

JERRARD JA: The order of the Court is that by consent the appeal is dismissed, and it is ordered that the appellant pay the respondent's costs of and incidental to the appeal assessed on the standard basis, or otherwise as agreed.
