JUDGMENT

WARNING: The publication of information or details likely to lead to the identification of persons in some proceedings is a criminal offence. This is so particularly in relation to the identification of children who are involved in criminal proceedings or proceedings for their protection under the Child Protection Act 1999, and complainants in criminal sexual offences, but is not limited to those categories. You may wish to seek legal advice before giving others access to the details of any person named in these proceedings.

HIS HONOUR: In this matter the applicant seeks leave to join as defendants in the action the person identified as second and third respondents. The application to do so has been properly served in accordance with the rules and, in fact, both the first defendant and the second and third respondents have agreed to the new parties being so joined.

In addition, the applicant seeks to amend to the claim by adding a claim for nuisance. The details associated with that claim have already been pleaded and responded to in the defendant's defence. The new course of action now specifically identified is within time and I will therefore allow the amendment as sought. I make orders by consent in terms of the draft initialled by me and placed with the papers.
